

K-LOVE serves my community with the best contemporary music available. We didn't have this type of music to keep us filled with the Spirit of God until K-LOVE came along, and it would be devastating to me and my Christian community if you take it away. It is also a great resource for community event schedules to be broadcast as a free service to non-profit organizations. Thank you for your help in this matter. God bless you.